The Salvation Army is consistently highly rated as a charity that spends its funds wisely and for the purpose it solicits funds for. When I make fundraising phone calls or ring the bell, someone will always tell me that their dad or granddad said that when they came off the battlefield in WWII, The Salvation Army gave the soldiers coffee and donuts and the Red Cross charged them. Another bit of non-profit trivia!!!

That is interesting about Goodwill.

Believe me, salaries at The SA are small details. The officers are really committed. Are you aware that Goodwill Stores are franchises and a number of those franchise holders make over 1 million a year! I can assure you no SA officer makes anywhere near that. Sometimes I would not mind having a salary, even a small SA salary, BUT then I don't want to manage a workforce again.

I am looking forward to the Oct. 26 meeting and lunch.....Linda

I'm retired so I have the time! I like Tug's – see you there at 12:30 on Monday, Nov. 7

I'm a little tired of Bhan Thai. Tug's sounds fine to me. (If you don't want to come downtown, we can meet you somewhere in between.)

Looking forward to lunch on Monday, Nov. 7. If you two will be on Jefferson, we can meet at Bhan Thai or Tug's on Harbor Town. If neither of those is convenient or if you prefer someplace else, let me know.

See you on the 26th. If I can help at that event, let me know.
